

Pictorial Quiz

Saquib Munir

Case scenario

A 75-year-old female came to the OPD with the complaint of swelling and discharge from the left breast for two to three years with no known comorbid. On examination, the left breast showed fungating growth of 10×15cm with ulcerating margins and blood-stained discharge. It was hard and fixed to the chest wall. No axillary and cervical lymphadenopathy was found. What is your diagnosis?

what is your diagnosis?

Department of Surgery,
Abbasi Shaheed Hospital

Correspondence: Dr. Saquib Munir
Department of Surgery
Abbasi Shaheed Hospital, Karachi
Email:
Date of Submission: 7th August 2019
Date of Acceptance: 8th January 2019

Answer on Page